NEW! Unsung Hero of the Year

This award is dedicated to those who have gone over and above the call of duty in their working lives.

Nominees can be of any level in the company and perform any function, but must be of a position that would not otherwise receive the recognition that they deserve. They must have performed some service for the company that goes over and above the call of duty. Examples could be an unsurpassed level of knowledge gained through longevity, or it could be a single event where the nominee showed exceptional initiative.

Section 1: Terms and conditions

The information contained in this entry form and supporting papers is accurate and not proprietary to any person or company other than the person or company entering. I understand that further details to substantiate the information may be requested at the discretion of the judges.

No correspondence will be entered into and the entry form and any supporting material will not be returned. In return for accepting the entry, the organisers may publish, free-of-charge, articles or features based upon all, or selected abstracts, from the information supplied, either in the monthly journal or on the web to publicise the awards.
